NEWSLETTER MAY 2022

Welcome all, to our May meeting. Next week we are into June, the start of our coldest weather of the year! It also means it is time for change.

We require one of our members to nominate for the position of President, as it is my aim to step down. Remember, anyone can nominate for any position on the committee.

So all you budding presidents, step up now. Male or Female, all welcome!!

Time is running out!

A nomination is also required for the position of Treasurer. Our secretary will have nomination forms at the ready.

Doug.

DINE-OUTS

Our next dine out - Friday 10th June will be at Redcliffe Tavern. The usual time from 11am New members welcome, no need to make a booking just turn up on the day. Looking forward to seeing you there.

May Trip

Kenilworth - Foodies Delight. Morning tea at Mary Cairncross park. Foggy viewing due to rain. Winding road through lush valley to Kenilworth Hotel. Out the back on the huge verandah we enjoyed our hot roast pork lunch, crackle and an apple crumble just like Grandma used to make. - delicious. Had to take a walk down through town to settle lunch before imbibing at the Kenilworth Dairy. Yoghurts, cheeses, Mousse - the choice was dazzling. Much oohing and aahing while a choice was made, paid for, and then some could fit it an ice cream in to finish their day. Much traffic on the way home and the rain came down, but we were all safe and dry. Rain stopped for us all to depart the bus and get home.

Hope you and Barb can enjoy the next trip Les.

Friday 17 June – Coucals Garden

Coucals Garden is a private garden of 4 acres situated at Mount Crosby in the hinterland west of Brisbane. The owners love to show off the eclectic mix of flora on display as they guide visitors through their rambling country garden. Enjoy a Devonshire morning tea on the veranda and take in the sounds of the garden and surrounding bush.

Cost is $70 per person and includes entry, morning tea & lunch. It is a 8AM for an 8:15AM departure from Redcliffe with a pick-up at Pelican Park Clontarf on the way out. Payment due at Today's meeting (May 27).

Friday 15 July Christmas in July Woongooroo Estate Winery

We will travel direct to the winery for a nice morning with a selection of Christmas treats. Lunch will be a roast with Christmas pudding for dessert. If there is time we may have some Christmas Trivia, bush poetry, wine tasting and checking out the Ottaba Llamas at the estate.

Cost is $60 per person and includes morning tea, lunch etc. Payment is due at the June meeting (24/06/22). It is an 8:15 for 8:30AM departure from Redcliffe with a pick-up in Clontarf on the way to Redcliffe and then at Deception Bay as we head north.
