Bangers and mash, Rissoles, Fish and chips with salad, Just three of the items on the menu at the Redcliffe Tavern where our dine out was held this month. Very tasty. Thirty five members enjoyed some of this repast with gusto! and it was washed down with a good cold beer or glass of wine. For those that did not attend, is your mouth watering at the thought? It should be!! Don't miss out on next months dine out, come and join us and enjoy yourselves.

Awassi Cheesery

Set off on Friday to Woop Woop. That's the place that is out in the wilds of the country. Grantham actually, and in a lovely valley with avocado and mango trees around and all these cute sheep. Long legs, not covered in fleece as they come from a desert region in Islamabad. Fat tails that do not get cropped or anything else horrible done to their nether regions. Love the heat and give very rich milk which is then made into a variety of cheeses, yoghurts and ice cream. Had a cheese board with many varieties, plus the fig & ginger jam which proved very popular. Lunch was a salad with frittata, olives, etc, and yummy bread. Quite different to the usual fare. Bonus was the ice cream of many varieties including a wicked one called licorice. Host & hostess were very informative and much fun. The trip home was exhausting (traffic wise), but all in all, another good trip. Many thanks Les & Barb for finding such different places to enjoy.

Your RR on this trip.
