NEWSLETTER SEPTEMBER 2021

Good morning everyone. I think we are so lucky not to be in lockdown as the two major states are at present. I guess it's keep our fingers crossed and hope we can stay free for a while longer!! As we are approaching our hotter seasons, we just might be lucky. Some of us are now beginning to look forward to going to Yeppoon for a few days holiday, as it gets closer, we can hope we continue to be free of COVID till then. In the meantime, we still have our usual functions to take part in and enjoy. Like our BBQs dine outs, etc. so please stay safe, and take care of yourselves.

Doug

RACQ

Friday the seventeenth turned into a beautiful warm sunny day, which was very pleasing, as this was our trip to Summerland Camel Farm. A full bus load of us had a great time petting camels, both young and old ones. When we were told of the camel products, I think we were all surprised. From camel milk to camel skin leather boots and everything in between, this was an eye opener. Just sorry we didn't get to have a camel ride!!

Prior to going to the camel farm, we had morning tea at Springfield Lakes,
Your Roving Reporter.
