More than forty members and guests attended the April dine out at Bramble Bay Bowls Club. With new caterers taking over there was a good selection of Chinese meals available at sensible prices, also a good selection of Aussie meals. Very good work Barb and Barb, we should go there again sometime.

This month's bus trip took us to Flagstaff, to visit Scotty's Barn and Garage. On the way we stopped at a large Public Park in Gatton for our morning tea/ coffee break. Our driver, Warren had everything organised. From there we hit the road again for Flagstaff, about half an hour away. Scotty's garage is a take-off of an American Roadhouse of the fifties and sixties, with a mix of old cars, motorbikes, and paraphernalia, including a juke box!! Very much like the early milk bars of that era. With lunch at Scotty's Barn, and plenty of tea and coffee to help, a good day was had by all
