NEWSLETTER NOVEMBER 2025

I have been in Perth celebrating the grandson's 3rd birthday. Went to at least two parties. Darcy's, in the park and Casper's at home. Way too much food. Have dropped Caspar off at daycare and also collected him after. Have dead headed all the roses in daughter's front yard. Walked the greyhounds. Puff puff. Gotta go home for a rest.
Happy Friday Redcliffe seniors. Kate

There was a very good turn-out for our monthly BBQ for November, the last BBQ for the year. The weather once again was bright, sunny and clear, and our favourite venue Crockatt Park is still the best. I think it would be good to thank our organisers for putting on such a good meal month after month with such little fanfare.
Well done all of those members involved in arranging our excellent outdoor meals!!

DINE-OUTS

Barb Emery & Barb Hornsby

As there is no BBQ in December our dine out will be the first Friday, 5th. at Scarborough Bowls Club, Scarborough Rd. from 11am. Remember there are some delicious Chinese meals available.

Our first get together in January will be at Morgan's Outdoor Seafood at Scarborough. Friday 16th. from 11am. We usually meet on the deck & please bring your picnic ware & table cloth if you wish.

Looking forward to seeing you there.

The two Barb's.

November Bus Trip

Leaving Redcliffe at 8-15am, and taking a leisurely drive through the country Side, we made our way to the College Crossing for our morning tea. This is a very nice park with plenty of space, tables, and grassland to please everyone. Feeling refreshed, we were then taken for a drive around Ipswich and shown the sites of interest there. By 11-30 we arrived at red bank Plains Tavern for a very tasteful smorgasbord. A comfortable drive back saw us home for 3pm. A very pleasant day for the 28 members who attended.

Grapevine News

Congrats to 2 birdies who were the wheelers & dealers in our new premises saga.

Our last BBQ of the year was musically (?)
accompanied by a young lady belting out songs to her heart's content, but not others (us).

Lovely birthday cake Helen. Congratulations on achieving such a memorable number.

Lunch at the RSL was well attended with our group taking up most of the outside room. Nice place to visit and good meals.
