NEWSLETTER APRIL 2022

In Doug's absence the Vice President, Les Dickens, will take the meeting today

DINE-OUTS

Our next dine out - Friday 13th May will be at Sea Salt & Vine at Scarborough (near the caravan park entrance). We will be out on the deck. Time to arrive, anytime from 11am.

Apologies were received from the management of Bramble Bay Bowls Club, they were very distressed as their chef did not turn up & family members were called in to assist.
The two Barbs

How very nice to see the sun shining from a clear blue sky on the morning of our monthly BBQ. The day was beautiful, as over fifty members and visitors can confirm. The boys doing the cooking, Mick, Allan, and Allan, (aka Shoey), were on the ball and into it from the word go. Well done you lot!! Then Kay Walker added some noodles to the menu! You are full of nice surprises Kay Thank you, and thank you also to those who constantly volunteer to help on these occasions.. Doug.

BARBEQUES

Margaret & John

We had an enjoyable BBQ with 57 members attending. Thank you to all the willing helpers. Please wear Name Tags and the correct money would be appreciated.

Put your names down with Lyn for our BBQ next week.

Margaret

April Trip

What a lovely day for a drive in the countryside. Our morning tea at Hinze Dam was much needed and the spectacular waterfall at the dam was the icing on the cake. A drive through the rolling hills and small villages of northern NSW was a sight for sore eyes. Only hiccup was the roundabout at Murwillumbah. The view through the windows of the bowls club, where we had lunch, was ideal for whale watching later in the year. Our club certainly filled up the dining room. A long day but well worth the drive. Thanks Les & Barb.

Bus Trip Friday, May 20. – Kenilworth Hotel.

Today we will travel through the back of the Blackall Ranges to the beautiful township of Kenilworth in the picturesque upper Mary Valley. The drive is one of the most scenic in the Sunshine Coast Hinterland and our lunch destination, the Kenilworth Hotel, is the perfect place to unwind. Hopefully after lunch we will have time to check out the cheese factory.

Cost is $65 per person and includes scenic touring, morning tea & lunch. It is an 8:45AM for 9AM departure from Redcliffe with pick-up in Clontarf on the way to Redcliffe and then at Deception Bay as we head north.

Payment due at today's meeting (29/04/22).

Friday 17 June – Coucals Garden

Coucals Garden is a private garden of 4 acres situated at Mount Crosby in the hinterland west of Brisbane. The owners love to show off the eclectic mix of flora on display as they guide visitors through their rambling country garden. Enjoy a Devonshire morning tea on the veranda and take in the sounds of the garden and surrounding bush.

Cost is $70 per person and includes entry, morning tea & lunch.

Payment due at May meeting (27/05/22). It is a 8AM for an 8:15AM departure from Redcliffe with a pick-up at Pelican Park Clontarf on the way out.
