NEWSLETTER MAY 2026

Kate is still travelling around UK and Europe, so it's me for another meeting. Hope you all are getting your flu shots ready for winter. Things seem to be working out at the Mousetrap Theatre for us. When Kate is back, she and I will meet with Karl Winchester about what the council is planning on doing with the first floor above the theatre and see if it could work for us. Enjoy the cooler weather.

BARBEQUES

Margaret Whitfield 0458 446 990

Welcome to our June BBQ. Sorry, we were unable to hold our May BBQ. I will use the May list as several of you have already paid. If you wish to add your name or you are not able to attend let me know today.

Note: As from July the BBQ will be $8 due to increasing costs. Margaret.

DINE-OUTS

Barb Emery & Barb Hornsby

Friday June 12th from 11 am

Our dine out venue in June will be at Redcliffe Tavern, corner Anzac Avenue & John Street from 11am. New members no need to phone anyone just turn up on the day
The two Barb's.

TRIPS & TOURS

June 19 Bus Trip

We head to the Sunshine Coast. After morning tea our first stop will be the Air Museum in Caloundra where we will have a guided tour. Afterwards time to enjoy a BBQ lunch before a scenic drive back home. 7:45 for an 8AM departure from Redcliffe with an earlier pick-up at Clontarf and as we are heading north there will be a pickup at Deception Bay after we leave Redcliffe.

Cost is $90 and includes morning tea, entrance to museum and lunch.

July 17 Bus Trip

Come and celebrate Christmas in July nestled among the rolling hills of the Great Dividing Range at Bestbrook Mountain Resort. This family-owned property offers great hospitality and a day to remember with traditional Australian farm experience including demonstrations and a yarn or two from your host. Fare includes morning tea and a delicious Christmas in July lunch with all the trimmings. Please note this will be a long day.

7:15 for 7:30am start from Redcliffe.'

Cost is $100.
